

This application is made for parents to use to entertain their children. There are four games, two of which are learning games, and two of which are fun games. The instructions encourage parents to make their children play the learning games (Perfect Piano and Map Mania) before the fun games (Aliens Attack and Crazy Cab). Simply click on the games to play and click on the home button to return to the welcome page after finishing a game.